

Power of the Pen and the National Writing Project at Kent State University present

KERNELS OF WISDOM: THE POWERFUL PEN

A narrative writing workshop for K-12 teachers

Saturday, Nov. 6, 2021, 9 a.m. to noon, via Zoom. Cost: $15

Keynote: Dr. Danielle Gruhler, Professor of Literacy at Kent State University

The Pen Really Is Mightier Than the Keyboard: The Power of Hand-Written Drafts

Join Power of the Pen and the National Writing Project at Kent State University for a morning of highly engaging sessions on bringing out the best in students' writing.

Keynote speaker Dr. Danielle Gruhler will share practical classroom strategies that help students think deeply about their writing, even when they ultimately will type their work. The keynote will be followed by your choice of two out of four breakout sessions, led by NWP-KSU teacher consultants and Power of the Pen coaches Jenn Sauvey, Barb Tschantz, Amy Krajeck, Teresa Crawford, Kyleen Wilson and Ryan Hershey.

Ideal for anyone looking for fresh ideas for inspiring student writers; perfect for Power of the Pen coaches.

Dr. Gruhler is a dynamic presenter who was honored with Kent State University's Distinguished Teaching Award in 2010. Dr. Gruhler teaches in the middle childhood, early childhood, and curriculum and instruction programs in the School of Teaching, Learning and Curriculum Studies at Kent State University.

Register online at powerofthepen.org and nwp-ksu.org
Questions? Email nwp@kent.edu

