

The National Writing Project at
Kent State University

Mini Summer Institute

The Institute addresses:

- 1) How to teach all three genres
- 2) Rubric use
- 3) Feedback that makes sense
- 4) Ideas presented in
The Writing Revolution 2.0

And more!

- * Host at your district
- * Choose 1-4 days to suit district needs - dates can be spread over the summer
- * $50-$250 per participant (dependent on number of days of institute)
- * Optional 1 graduate workshop credit available, for an additional $162 per person

Learn more about the National Writing Project at KSU:

www.nwp-ksu.org

Energize Your Teaching

The NWP-KSU Summer Institute provides uplifting and encouraging professional development. Teachers will be immersed in reading and writing with education professionals who are just as passionate about reaching students as they are.

Engage Your Students

Teachers will leave the Institute with an abundance of ideas for the classroom to inspire students to think much more deeply about reading and writing.

Enhance Student Learning

The Institute is for teachers of all content areas and grade levels. Educators will learn strategies to effectively guide students toward critical analysis and clear writing that gives voice to their thinking.

Check out a sample four-day Institute:

<http://bit.ly/4g9s8Ld>

This schedule can be tailored to your district's needs.

Contact us soon to get your site on the calendar!

Contact Dr. Lori Wilfong to talk about how the National Writing Project at Kent State University can help meet your district's writing goals this summer:

lgkrug@kent.edu | 330-675-3200

